The News.

A variety of interesting news by telegraph and otherwise, will be found in our columns this morning, to which we have barely space to call attention. Lecompton occupies nearly the entire attention of the House of Representatives.

We have later latelligence from Mexico. The new government appears to be galaing ground. Several battles had been fought in which the Zuloga party claimed the victory. The Zuloga forces were moving upon Vera Oruz, and a battle was expected.

An immense Anti-Lecompton Democratic meeting was held in Pittsburgh on Wednesday evening. It is reported as the largest political meeting over held there.

The New York produce market, yesterday, was reported heavy. There is no material change ia our own market.

The weather was very pleasant yesterday, and business generally brisk. Lecompton in the House.

Although the Lecompton Swindle has passed the Senate by eight majority, there is every prospect of its defeat in the Propte's House .--The well-informed correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, gives the following statement of the probable vote on the bill:

Against Lecompton—Republicate,

Jemoorate—Adrian, of N. J., Ulark and Haskins, of N. Y., Chapman, Dowart, Hickman, Owen, Jones, and Montgomery, of Pa., Barnes, Cockeell, Ox., Groesback, Hale, Lawrence, and Pendleton, of Ohio, Davis, Engliss, and Folce, of Ind., fluris, Morris, Marshall, Shaw, and Smith, of Ill., and McKibben, of California.

Americans—Davis, Harris, and Ricaud, of Md., Glimor, of N. C., Marshall, and Hador.

Md., Gilmor, of N. C., Murshall and Underwood, of Ky.

For the the bill—Democrats, 107
Americans—Hill and Tripp, of Ga., Ready,
Maynard and Zellicoffer, of Tenn.

Majority against it

Consistancy is a Jewel.

When the Straight Cut was first undertaken? an act was passed by the Legislature authoriz-Ing the City to issue $50,000 in bonds, to pay for the work. The ordinance for that purpose was submitted to and approved by the People. Sub sequently Habiar & Co had the law amended so as to allow an unlimited isour of City bonds -but never a word was said about submisting olamorous for " aubmission !"

The Tax-Enters Unanimous.

The News informs us that the Tax-Eaters are not only unanimous, but enthusiastic in support have good reason to be so. If they succeed, under their Heavy Tax, High Salary, and No Reform banner, they will have fat pickings out of the City for another year. Defeat the Charter Amendments and elect the Tax-Eaters ticket and the whole army of office-holders, contra &c., will hold a jubilee.

ANTI-LECOMPTON VICTORIES,-The Anti-Letool of James Buchanan.

The Anti-Lecomptonites of Tamaque, Schuyl, kill county, also united, and elected their candidates for municipal officers by over 100 majority. The Democratic majority in this borough is usually from 160 to 200.

"Good Boy,"-The News pats the Wisconsin approvingly on the head, for coming to the aid of HADLET & Co., and recommending the " submission " of the amendments. We are willing to believe that the Wisconsin did so in Ignorance of the fact that such submission recders the act null and void. No doubt that is what HADLEY & Co. desire, but we did not suppose the Wisconsin wished to see the amendments

A regiment has also been tendered from Wis sousin. There seems to be no doubt of the passage of the Act, authorizing the levy of four Rogiments of Volunteers.

How Lecomopton is to get Through-Government Contracts.

It has been rumored for some time that the It has been rumored for some time that the Government was using its contracts for Army Supplies, in such a way as to offer bribes for Lecompton votes in Congress. The "Courier and Enquirer," this morning, reveals some of the details:—

A HANDSOME BLOCK .- The fine brick block lately erected by Joseph Cor, Esq., on the cornor of East Water and Chicago streets, may justly be classed emong the handsomest, and most substantial buildings in the City. It fronts on East Water street one hundred feet, runs back one hundred forty one feet on Chicago street, and is five stories high, including the basement. The that amendment. Now, however, that it is pro- mason work of the building, is done in a very posed to restrict the power of the Corporation to durable manner. The basement story is built issue bonds and lacur debts, Hadler & Co. ate of stone, on a firm, and deep laid foundation of the same material, and the walls are of a thickness, which, it would seem, would warrant their everlasting durability. The upper part of the building is constructed of our famous cream colored of their ticket and platform. Undoubtedly they and doors are arched over in a very neat manner, also with brick, and a pretty brick work cornice tops the building on the front and south side, and the general style is very similar to Mr. Quen.

Mr. Corson's abilities, but we did suppose him the Common Council was held on Wednesday to be possessed of a little more common sense, evening last. The usual notices for the April than to utter such nonsense as that above election were ordered published. A complaint could not spare the time to come to the Albany from the Gas Company, that the City did not pay up, and threatening to shut off the gas unloss the bills were promptly settled, was received and referred to the Finance Committee. A. petition was presented from a number of Captains and Vessels owners, representing that the Straight Cut had but scant ten feet of water in it, and spread fame throughout the West, for business asking the Council to have it dredged to fourteen fuet. The Harbor Committee was instructed to have the necessary dredging done. For the Dally Bentine; Oundidate for Comptroller. MR. EDITOR :- No office to be filled at the coming Charter Election excites more interest at home and abroad than that of Comptroller. Therefore, in view of the approaching Peoples Convention, allow me to suggest the name of John L. Hathaway, as a candidate for Comptroller, a name worthy in every respect of the Conention's most candld and serious consideration

He possesses, in an eminent degree, a marked fitness for the position—being extensively known both at home and abroad as a man of superior business talent and unbending integrity, he would at once have the confidence of our Tax payors, and from them receive a cheerful endorsement and enthusiastic support;

Mr. Hathaway, at the present time, stands a the head of one of our principal banking houses and from his extensive business connections in eastern cities, the facilities he could bring to bear in all financial operations would be of incalculable benefit to our city. Who then will second the motion?

The other resolutions calling for recess were indefinitely postponed. To adjourn on the 12th of April 8ine die—indefinitely postponed. To investigate members of 1857 relative to receiving lets in New Lishon—was adopted. The committee on smolled bills reported the resolutions on Kansas as correctly enrolled. Mr. Noble who introduced the resolutions in the Assembly, objected to the word Topeks being inserted after Lecompton, and moved they be recommitted with instructions to amend; after some discussion the reference was made.

Bills Passed—To smend act to incorporate the city of Beloit. For relief of school districts in Buena Vista, Richland Co. For an appropriation Buena Vista; Richland Co. For an appropria-tion by Congress for construction of a canal and improvement of navigation of Grand River. The Assembly had a short session in committee of the whole on general files.

Congressional. WASHINGTON, March 24.

SENATE.—A large number of petitions were presented in the Senate today, including two for a general relief law, from citizens of New York and Michigan, and one from the Legislature of Wiscopain, for a law to secure to the State, the proceeds of the public lands.

A resolution was adopted calling for the correspondence with Chili, respecting the seizure of the bark Macedonia by the Peruvians.

The House Army Bill was reported without amendments by the Military Committee.

No action was taken on the Maxi an Bill.

The business of the morning was uninterrupted, with the exception of the presentation of some anti-slavery resolutions from the State of Maine, Mr. Mason of Va. objected to them in strong terms, as disrespectful to Congress, the strong terms, as disrespectful to Congress, the Judiciary and the President.

Judiciary and the President:

Mr. Fessenden of Ms. defended them, saying he endorsed them fully.

Mr. Seward presented a similar anti-slavery remonstrance, but conched in temperate language, from the Society of Friends, of N. Y.

Mr. Ivorsen made an ineffectual motion to take up the Army bill. The Minnesota bill was taken up, when the question, as to whether she is entitled to one, two, or three Representatives, was debated without electing anything of interest. Finally Mr. Toombs moved that Minnesota be permitted to have three Representatives in was densited without electing anything of interest.

He thought it best to have an understanding in the matter that nobody shall be taken by surprised Mr. Campbell of Obio, said the House had been debating the cussion involved in that bill for nine years, and nearly all this sension. This Kansas question blocks up public, as well as private business. He was therefore ready to meet the question to-day or to morrow, with or without further debate. He thought it due to the interests of the country, that the House should come to a vote, and suggested that by common causent they agree to take up the bill to morrow.

POTATORS—Are dull at 30@850.

HAY—Is scarce on account of the bad roads. Good thin, but when there was a full attendance, they esible to get through the busin ow pressed; and a rrangements might be made atisfactory to all parties.

Mr. Stephens withdrew the suggestion for the present, in the belief that such an arrangement would be made. When a day was fixed he would mnounce it. Mr. Glancey Jones made an ineffectual motion to report a bill from the committee of ways and menze, regulating the mode and manner of cot-lecting and disbursing the revenue. The House west into Committee on the deficiency apropriation bill.

Mr. Peyton, of Ky, made a speech in favor of the admission of Kausas under the L. compton Constitution

He predicted the most disastrous conseque r rie presented the must dissected consequences from the defeat of the bill, and accused the Republicans with keeping open the agitation to promote their Presidential electioneering pur-promote street Architectures accumulation and poses.

Mr. Grow, of Pa, spoke of the injustice and oppression of the attempt to force on the people of Kanses a constitution against which they have protested in the most solemn forms. The people were lulled into accurity by executive promises that the constitution should be subpromised but were between by found and yiplence. nitted, but were betrayed by fraud and violence -and now the last act in the drama is sought t be consummated. The people of Kansas were true to their great inheritance, and would not true to their great inheritance, and would not submit to gross usurpation upon their political rights, for which they were characterized falsely by the Fresident as rebellions, but Mr. G. decided with Jefferson, that resistance to Tyranny is obedience to God. Those who submitted to usurpation are worthy to be slaves. While the attempt is made to force on Ransas an odious despotism, and to propagate human bondage, there can be no peace in Kansas.

Mr. Reilley mentioned the legality of the proceedings attending the formation of the Lecomp ton Constitution. If Kensas is admitted into the Union, the Legilature can st any time pass ton Constitution. If Kansas is admitted into the Union, the Legislature can at any time pass the Union, the Legislature can at any time pase an act for amending and submitting it to the people, and no power outside of the State can interfere. He knew not what his fate would be for voting for the Kanasa bill; but if his constituents think he has done wrong, they have a right to send another to take his place.

Mr. Thayer, of Mass., said whatever blame or pause existed for disunion, attaches to the Slave power, which for many years has controlled the Demeratic party.

Demogratic party.

He spoke of the decline of Slavery, both in a moral and political aspect.

Mr. Stephens announced that he would on Thursday next, at one o'clock, move to take up the Senate Kansas bill.

Mr. Davis, of Indiana, inquired by whom the arrangement had been made.

Mr. Campbell, explained by saying that various gentlemen had been consulted.

Mr. Grow had no objections to Mr. Stephona naking the motion, that was as far as he. Grow making the motion, that was as lar as he, trow and his friends could go to day. If all sides con-gent on Thursday next, the bill can be taken up. Mr. Stephens said that Mr. Grow correctly un-devision the matter. No motion would be made intil Thursday. intil Taursony.

Mr. Campbell remarked, that by this arrangement, no advantage could be taken by either Mr. Quitman, of Miss., said he wished to offer an amendment to the bill.

Mr. Stephens replied that this arrangement would not preclude him.

Mr. Florence, of Penn, and others, thought there was some discrepancy between the state-ment of Messrs. Campbell and Stephens, the latter reported that he designed nothing but to move, on Thursday, to take up the bill from the M . Davis, of Indians, said that this was satisfactory to him and those with whom he acted.

Mr. Montgomery, of Pa., wished to know whether Mr. Stephens would move to take up the bill merely for discussion or to put it on its passago. Mr. Stephens replied that he intended to move the previous question; if the majority say debate, they could vote down the motion.

Mr. Campbell said that if the latter was agreed. MARRIED.

the bill would be open for amendment or discussion at the pleasure of the House. He assured the gentlemen that neither he nor Mr. I designed the gentlemen that neither he nor Mr. I designed to take advantage of either side. This strangement seemed to be perfectly understood by the Wouse.

Mr. Moore, of Alebama, made a speech in de-side of the South. There is something she was more than the Union, and will defend to the last extremity, namely, her constitutional the last extremity, namely, her constitutional rights and independence.

Mr. Washburne, of Ill., protested against the crime of forcing elsvery upon the free people of Kanssa, against their expressed will. He denounced the repeal of the Missouri Compromise as a violation of the plighted faith of their assure. The Senate confirmed the appointment of Cel. Johnston, commanding the Utah expedition, as Brigadier General.

The House was so much interested in the speech of Mr. Clarke; of New York, tc-day, that they voted unanimous consent to him to continue his remarks beyond the hour. The Amendments of the Senate Committee of Military Affairs to the House Volunteer Bill, are comparatively unimportant as to its general fea-tures, but affect the Quarter Master's Department. There is little, if any doubt of its pas sage.

Oapt. Marcy was to leave for Utsh on the 25th inst., with 1000 mules.

Secretary Beale came passenger from Sants Fe. He left Lo Angelos, Jan. 10, with 25 men and mules, having sent the camels back from the Colorado River. He adhered strictly to the 85th parallel, and pronounces it the best instural touts for a reflected in the world. It is 500 miles. route for a milroad in the world. It is 500 miles shorter than Whipple's route. He used no tents from Lo Angelos, but slept comfortably every night. He found only three inches of snow at aty time on the routs. He reports finding relies of ancient divilization, and met with a tribe of Indians hitherto unknown to the whites. He could travel the whole route with five men, as well as with twenty.

New ORLEANS, March 25. The steamer Tennessee, from Vera Cruz, 21st, with dates from the city of Mexico to the 16th, arrived to-day. It is very difficult to get reliable information. Several battles had been tought, fo which Zuloga's government claimed a triumph, but it does not amount to much. Parodl has retreated before Ossola. Fromusciamentos were still the order of the day, but the new government seems to be gaining ground. Vera Cruz was under martial law. The Zulc aga forces were on the road there, and a battle would probably be fought between the capital and Vera Cruz, PRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 26.

The Charter Amendments. The following is the Report submitted by Col. Milwaukee delegation, in favor of the Charter Amendments. The other five Members, under the lead of Mr. Cosson, candidate for City Attorney on the Tax-Esters' ticket, signed a report recommending the indefinite postponement The undersigned, a minority of the relect committee consisting of the Milwaukee delegation, No. 496 A, an act to amend an act entitled "an act to consolidate and amend it e acts to incorporate the city of Milwaukee, and the several acts amendatory thereof," approved February 20,

Heg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration, and have satisfied themselves that there is no difference of opinion among the honest and intelligent portion of the people of Milwaukes. (and they claim that there are many such presons there,) that important radical amendments to the chatter of said city are indispensible.

The people of Milwankee were startled by the realizing sonse of these conditions when too late. On examination they found that the general city expenditure for 1857, amounted to the enormous sum of $101,547 03; and street commissioners certificates issued for 1860, to the amount of $184,234 68, and every other butthen on the same ratio. The natural loquiry among all honest tax payors was, what can be done to relieve themselves from these unsuffernile burthens?—They appealed to their delegation in the legislature for relief, and a temporary relief was granted, but it was not in the power of this legislature to grant permanent relief against the load now resting upon them, but it has the power to relieve and protect them, by passing a law; that has visilly lu it, and that will put an oud to this consurable predigality in their city expenditures. realizing sense of these conditions when to

The bill referred to your committee, is the work of a committee of tax payers of Milwaukee, appointed to investigate into, and if possible, ascertain the cause, or causes which have led to this deplorable state of things, and to devise some remedy to protect them in the future.

That this reform should be offseted without opposition from those who enjoyed, or expected to copy the behofts of this extravagance was not to be presumed, and your committee is sorry not to be presumed, and your committee is sorry to say, that the character and vehicmence of that opposition has been very little exaggerated in the papers. The spirit of orimination and re-crimination ran high. The tax payers were fighting for their "homes and their fire sides," against those who were content to let good enough alone.

another committee was appointed at one of their meet-ings, consisting of some of the best, and most cool, honest, and conservative men in the city To the report of this committee all eyes turned with confidence. That report was made on the right of the 18th inst., to one of the largest, and most respectable meedings ever hold in Milwaukee, and after a free and full interchange of sentiment, that report was adopted without a discontinuous.

Your Committee having put that report, so adopted and rathied by the people of Millwaukee into form, and now offer it, with the simple addition of two sections, the one to regulate the time of election under it, and a second to provide for calling a convention to rovice, codify and amond the said charter, as a substitute for the original bill, and recommend that the substitute do near and that it he must the said.

We cannot see why any one should object to the submission of the amendments proposed to our City Charter to the legal voters of the city. The refusal betrays a want of confidence in the ability of the people, and a distrust in the merits of the provisions of the amendments proposed. It involves the same principle which we have its of the provisions of the amonuments proposed. It involves the same principle which we have claimed as a right for the people of Kansas, and consistency constrains us to demand the same right for the citizens of Milwaykee. Want of is not a sufficient excuse for the sacrifice of a great principle .- Wisconsin.

This 'great principle" has been get up specially for this occasion. A great number of " amendments" bave been made to our City Charter by Hapley & Co, and important ones at that, not one of which was ever submitted to the People. Nor do the Tax-Enters, who clamor for "submis, gree from sion " now, mean what they say. This cry is only set up in the hopes of prejudicing the Pcc. ple and the Legislature against the amondments. HADLEY & Co. understand perfectly well that if the Legislature should pass the bill with the submission clause attached, the only effect of the popular vote (whichever way cost) would be to render the act null and soid. A very different matter that from the Kausas case, where the vote of the people is and ought to be essential to the adoption of their Constitution.

WOMAN'S LOVE Much has been weitten about woman's love, but me glory of a woman " was ever so foreibly expressed in a few words, as in the following stants which were taken from an Eogilah paper : Come from your long, long roving On the same so wild and rough; Come to me tender and loving, and shall be blessed enough.

Serronful, sinful and lonely, Poor and despised though you be, l are nothing, I only You turn from the tempter to me.

What winds have been unfurling,

Of men though you be unforgiven, Though priest to unable to obrive, I'll dray till weary all heaven, if only you come back alive.

The Rumpbacked Cousin.

Behold an extraordinary adventure of thes latter days. If it were not an ecurrence, one need not relate it. It it were not an extraordinary oc-A fusive of a family inhabiting the Rue de te blichordiere, received, last summer, a letter from his nephow, who was in the employ of Hyder bad. The letter concluded thus:

"I have received the portraits of my two cou-sins, Marlo and Margaret. I have never had the plussure of seeing them, as I have lived with Hyder Abad slace my youth, but I am sure they are resemblances. I will arrive at fluvre by the ship I nos Ego, about the first of October, and on my arrival, I am determined to marry the beauti-ul Mar—"

The breaking open of the letter had destroyed the rest of the name. It was impossible to tell if the cousle had asked Muric or Margaret in marriage. The two sisters, unlied previous to GREAT ATTRACTION this time, had commenced to live on misunder-standings, each of them positive that it was part of her name which was torn of he breaking the HARDWARE, !IRON, STEEL, NAILS.

the anger of his two daughters; when a servant, sent in advance, arrived from Havre, announcing that his master went to Parla with the evening ain. The servant was overwhelmed with questions;

The servant was overwhelmed, and that he replied that his master was rained, and that he had moreover, on his left shoulder, the horrid protuberance, which had caused, necerding to protuberance, which had caused, according to Plutarch, so many misiortunes to Esop, the Plettrich, so many misfortunes to Esop, the Phrygian.

Phrygian.

The cousins determine, hereupon, to remain single forever, before marrying a cousin that is hump-backed and rulned.

twelve hours, the frousin arrives. His uncle warmly embraces bim, the cousins make a polite bow and turn away their eyes.

The uncle then explains the incident of the tern letter, and asks the matrimonial intentions othla nephew, "It is my cousin Marie whom I come to marry," he repled,
"Nover! never!!" screamed Marie, "I am contented with my condition, and I will remain in it."

"Mademoisolle," said the nephew, "I have adopted the custom of the country where I have been educated. Road the customs of Hyder A FULL STOOM of Single and Double Barrel

"He kills himself!" exclaimed the other sieter,

Margaret. "He kills himself!" repiled the nephew, in the "The runs annually replied to commit suicide.

"The poor cousin," said Margarot, weeping,
"to come such a distance to dis in the bosom of his family."

"I know," contined the nephew, "that my "I know," continued the nepriew, "that my deformity silicts the sight of a woman, but in time the eyes of a woman become habituated to all things. I know also, that my commercial business is not prosperous. Thrown very young of Hyder Abad, I lost there all the fortune of my father; but I have acquired experience; I am young, autivo and industrious. There are riches themselves,"
"Yes, yes; humpbocked and rained,"mutteret Marie, in a bantering tone.

"Poor young man!" sald Margaret, and she added, "my cousin, I am refused, and you pay no attention to it,"
"And by whom rolused?" inquired the cou-

"To your cost, by you ; since you have prefer red my sister to mc."

"Eh Blen !" said the cousin, "will you accept me, it I ask you in marriage from my uncle ?"

"I will engage my father to let my cousin

"What !" explained the humpbacked, "you not waver a minute."
"This is well, my drughter," said the uncle, affected by the scene. "Romances have not spoiled you. I have a very small income, but I ought not to abandon the son of my brother, in uniforeting. The cousin threw bloself at Margaret's feet, saying:

"You have saved an unfortunate man from destruction and death."
At a little distance, Marie muttered to her-eeff:

"My sister has courage. As for not, I would let all humphacked cousins die."

"Uncle," said the young man, " allow me to make a slight toilet before breakfas."

He pressed Margare's hand, bowed to Marie, and loft to change his traveling attire.

The uncle and his daughters were at the table and available fourth mean. and awaiting took fourth guest.

The servant announced the cousin of Hyder Abad. The two girls uttered two screams, but

They see enter a charming young man! tall, without any humpback, who embraces Margaret, and placing before her a basker, he said to her:

"Behold your marriage portion."

It was a basket full of diamonds. It was more over the hump which had thus arrived free of dulies.
"See what I have carried on my shoulders," said the cousin, "from Bombay to Havre, to offer to that one of my cousins who would accept me with my false poverty and my feigned deformity."
There was great joy in the house which: was, satonishing as it may seem, participated in by Marie. It is true that Marie loved her sister dearly, without detesting the diamonds. We cannot refrain from calling the attention of our readers to an advertisement in this day's paper of the Hair factorative of Frof. O 'J. Wood & Oo, of Bt.
